 Sundry Chinese Bitters.
 Dr. J. O. Richardson's Sundry Chinese Bitters are the result of an extensive practice of the Chinese medicine of the laws which govern the human system.

It is well known that most diseases are first a derangement of the stomach and bowels and that the rest of the system soon follows.
The system is sympathized with, and the stomach and the other part of the living body is affected. So of nervous diseases of all kinds, it really originates in our bowels and stomach. In fact, the bowels are the seat of all diseases.

And these diseases are given birth to derangement of the system of Breathing and the system of Circulation.

The Intestined character of these Elixirs is not strong, their operation being more or less purely external according to the nature of the diseases. When used in appropriate quantity, they cause slight derangement of the Stomach and are caused by coarseness or a slight bludge, difficult to digest. These diseases, putrid and in general, present more serious consequences, they will be scarcely felt.

On the contrary, in those cases they frequently operate more powerfully, causing three or four days delay in the circulating fluid, becomes purified, the temperature they acquire is not different from that of the Escape of the Mexican Steamers from Vera Cruz.

Correspondence of the New York Express. PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1846. I have just received a mercantile letter from Vera Cruz, announcing the arrival of the Mexican steamers from Vera Cruz, which had escaped from the hands of the Mexican government.

Price of War. The New Orleans Delta, May 26th, says the U. S. Marshal yesterday received the Mexican Consulate, under process issued against her as a pirate of war, she being owned by citizens of Mexico.

The Conquest of Mexico. The Union of Tuesday, adds the following confirmation of the intention of Mr. Polk to conquer Mexico. There is no method of bringing Mexico to her senses and to a confession of our just rights, but pushing the war with all our might, after the capture of Matamoros. That even without our own military operations, nor will the action arrest them; but we shall go on conquering and to conquer, until Mexico is compelled to abandon her throne, and her hereditary rights.

The Schenck committee had a meeting on Thursday, and examined Mr. L. F. Tassilo. They have got through with their witnesses, and a report will soon be forthcoming. It will place Mr. C. J. Ingersoll and other Locos, who seem to have conspired to take away Mr. Webster's good name, in no enviable light.

It is said that we shall have, in a day or two, the correspondence between General Scott and the administration, which will show very clearly and wherefore he has not been permitted to take an active part in the Mexican war.

There yet remains doubt and uncertainty hanging over the question as to who shall be U. S. Senator from Maine. The chances are rather in favor of Mr. Hurlin, but his chance is not considered a good one.

Mr. Garrettsville Melville, American Secretary of Legation, died in London about the last of April.

The New Orleans papers of the 26th ult. do not give us, as expected, any thing later from the seat of war.

Washington, June 2, 1846. In the Senate, Senator Lewis from the Finance committee, reported two resolutions calling on the President for the amount of receipts in the Treasury for the present year, whether a loan will be necessary, and probable cost of the war, with any other information bearing on the subject. On motion of Mr. Taylor, the debate in and out of the Senate was postponed till tomorrow.

Houston's resolution to give aid to Gen. Taylor, and a vote of thanks to his men, was referred to the Committee on Military Affairs. The bill extending laws over Oregon, referred to the Judiciary with instructions to report a bill for a Territorial Government, laid on the table. The Senate then went into Executive session.

The House spent all day in discussing the bill for appointing two Major Generals, four Brigadier Generals, the debate in and out of the Senate was postponed till tomorrow.

The New Orleans Picayune of May 26th says that, at the close of a meeting held in that city on the evening of the 25th, for the purpose of expressing the feelings of the citizens toward Gen. Taylor, for the noble manner in which he has conducted the operations of the Army, a person in an officers dress arose, and said he held a paper in his hand, which proved Gen. Taylor to be a coward. The audience was received with a burst of indignation which must have made the speaker imagine he had fallen into a wilderness of rattlesnakes. He proved to be one Hays, an individual who has been engaged in raising a regiment for the Rio Grande. He received such a rebuke as might have chilled the enthusiasm of a live-kiln. The audience, and a great deal of indignation was manifested at the bare idea of a man so manifestly a coward. Gen. Scott's assuming command of the Army.

To the Hon. the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Maine, in Legislature assembled.—May 4, 1846.

A legal meeting of the Stockholders of the Bangor Bridge Company, the undersigned were chosen a committee in petition the Legislature for an extension of the term of the charter granted in Annot Statute and of the term, February 10, A. D. 1838, for the erection of a bridge over the Penobscot River from Bangor to Brewer. They would respectfully request, that under said charter a bridge be built in A. D. 1838, at a cost not exceeding twenty thousand dollars, and which was carried away by an ice freshet the twenty-ninth day of March last.

The Stockholders in said Company having made contracts for the reconstruction of said bridge at an expense of about three-fourths of the original cost, and the dividends upon the capital stock paid in, have been so small, that the company will show, wholly inadequate as a return upon the investment subject to so great risks, the undersigned would respectfully ask that the present charter may be so amended as to give said forty thousand dollars, and the stockholders, and other powers and privileges as may be deemed proper, and also, that a limit may be imposed as to the weight of loads transported by team across said bridge.

ELIJAH H. HAMLIN, SYLVANUS RICH, ASA DAVIS.

STATE OF MAINE. In House of Representatives, May 22, 1846.

ON the petition aforesaid. Ordered, That the petitioners cause an attested copy of their petition, with this order thereon, to be published three times in the Bangor Daily Whig and Courier, the first publication to be on the first day of June, and the last on the twentieth day of June, at which time, if they have any further petition to present, they should not be granted.

Read and accepted. Sent up for concurrence. In Senate, May 23, 1846.

Read and concurred. DANIEL T. PIKE, Sec'y.
